

Balkan Communication Network has been created by the Constitutional Conference under the leadership of T.C.The Ministry of Foreign Affairs held in Ankara on 9-10 June 2005. Balkan Communication Network has been consisted of prominent Strategic and other research centers in Balkan countries.

After meetings of Sophia in 2006 and Bucharest in 2007, the third annual meeting of the Network was held in Tekirdag in cooperation with Turkish Asian Center for Strategic Studies TASAM and SAM on 30th April 2010. Balkan Communication Network forming a parallel diplomacy platform which will could contribute to strengthen mutual trust and understanding will hold the 4rd annual conference of Balkan Communication Network in cooperation with central TASAM in Ohrid-Macedonia and Macedonian Academy of Science and Arts MANU on 15-17th September 2011.

Balkan Communication Network which provides a tight cooperation between active think tanks in the region held the previous annual conference in cooperation with SAM and TASAM in Tekirdag on 30th April 2010. In Conference; Moldova, Montenegro, Slovenia attended for the first time and the memberships of new think tanks from other Balkan countries were approved.

In 2012, the Conference of Balkan Communication Network creating alternative constructive approaches for decision makers through closeness and tight cooperation established between think tanks of Balkan Countries will be arranged hosted by Albanian Institute for International Studies (AIIS).

